

Object type

Management

Outcome

Ribbons are coloured by management. Objects matching more than one category are assigned to the highest-risk one (magnetic > button battery > sharp > coin or blunt metal > fruit pit > long > other). Most perforations were present on admission and were therefore the indication for surgery rather than a consequence of it.